ooo

ooo lonely place PRODUCTIONS

[189] To practice Zen is to sit in zazen.¹ For sitting in zazen a quiet place is good. Prepare a thick sitting mat. Do not allow wind and smoke to enter. Do not allow rain and dew to leak in. Set aside an area that can contain the body.

A hand-drawn cartoon featuring two characters. On the left is a person with a round head, closed eyes, and a simple body with wide, splayed legs. On the right is a smaller character with a round head, large eyes, small horns, and a body with diagonal stripes. Two speech bubbles are positioned between them. The top bubble, coming from the smaller character, contains the text 'ISN'T THINKING EXHAUSTING?'. The bottom bubble, coming from the larger character, contains the text 'NOT THINKING IS EXHAUSTING TOO'.
